Begin the loop of the waterfalls at Valmorel ski station, on a small track behind the Mottet tennis courts, at 1 400m altitude. Trek through the forest until arriving at the Prariond, a large open space with a chalet restaurant and gateway to the pastures of the Pierrafort Mountain.

Walk up past the ski lift and, after a brief stairway, walk along the hillside to the Plan Salin (1 760m), the heart of the waterfalls, from where you'll access the magnificent water formations along a nice path.

Continue up-hill until the top of the Altispace chair-lift where a great view of the Morel Valley, down to Aigueblanche and up to the Mont-Blanc awaits.

Take a brief downhill section called 'the 51 turns' and go, once again, through the forest which leads you back to the starting point.
